www.ilpost.it/2013/08/19/opere-getty-trust-libere-da-diritti/horses-and-riders-recto-horses-verso/

This is a page from Italian artist Theodore Gericault's sketchbook. It is located in the J. Paul Getty Museum in Los Angeles, California. Describe in complete sentences below what about these sketches is interesting to you and how did Theodore Gericault give a sense of movement with the use of lines?

2) www.artsconnected.org/toolkit/watch_types_line.cfm

Watch the video (you can replay it if you need to by pressing the button on the right side), then answer these questions:

What is the name of the artist of this woodcut art piece? _____

List at least 4 types of lines presented in the video: _____

Which of these types of lines did Theodore Gericault use in his sketches in Item 1?

3) www.franzmarc.org

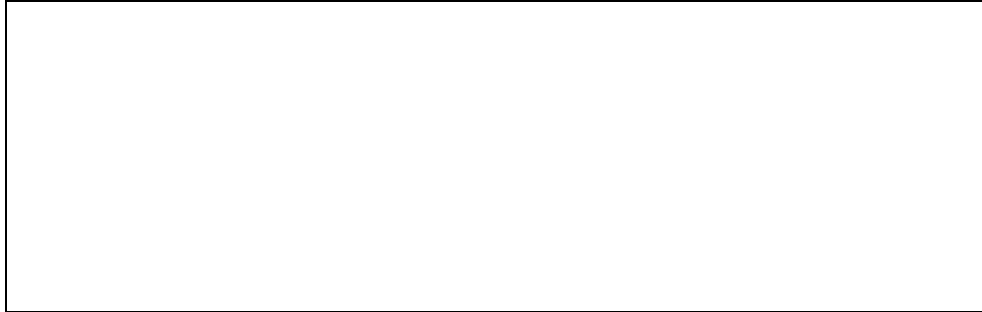

Look through this page and find the section “Masterpieces of Franz Marc.” What is similar about the paintings displayed to the sketches of Theodore Gericault?

4) www.equinespot.com/cartoon-horses.html

Cartooning is all about _____!

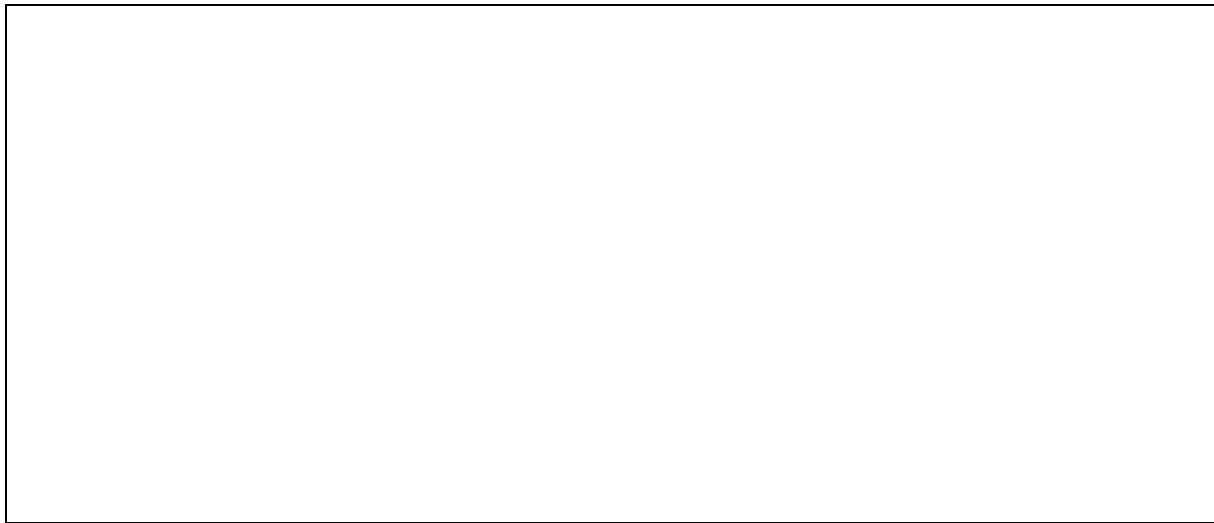

What was the name of Mulan’s horse? _____

Sketch 3 different cartoon horses’ heads (one in each of the three boxes below) using the “2 circle method” described on this site.

- 5) www.dragoart.com/tuts/17892/1/1/how-to-draw-a-realistic-horse.htm
DO NOT DOWNLOAD ANYTHING!!!!

Complete a contour sketch of a REALISTIC horse following steps 1 through 5.

Describe how this sketch of a horse differs from the other 3 horse head sketches in Item 4. Remember to use at least 5 complete sentences with proper punctuation and capitalization in this description.

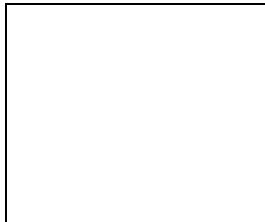

6)

<https://nationalzoo.si.edu/animals/grevys-zebra>

Zebras and horses are close relatives and share the same Genus Equus. How is Grevy's Zebra similar to a horse in appearance?

How does it differ?

When observing Grevy's Zebra its BLACK skin and WHITE fur creates a definite line design that make a zebra unique. Sketch a small patch of this design in the box below.
